El diseñador español Enrique Martí ha unido la época Nouveau y Mid Century con la Aerodinámica, que crearon estilo a principios del siglo pasado en Estados Unidos, para desarrollar esta colección de sofás modulares.

Inspirado por la época en la que nacieron los primeros grandes hoteles y casinos de lujo, los opulentos automóviles y el extravagante diseño de interiores, cuando se volvía a valorar el mobiliario y la decoración como elementos de distinción y clase. Así nace Bellagio, un homenaje a aquellos maravillosos años dorados al que se le ha introducido un claro toque contemporáneo.

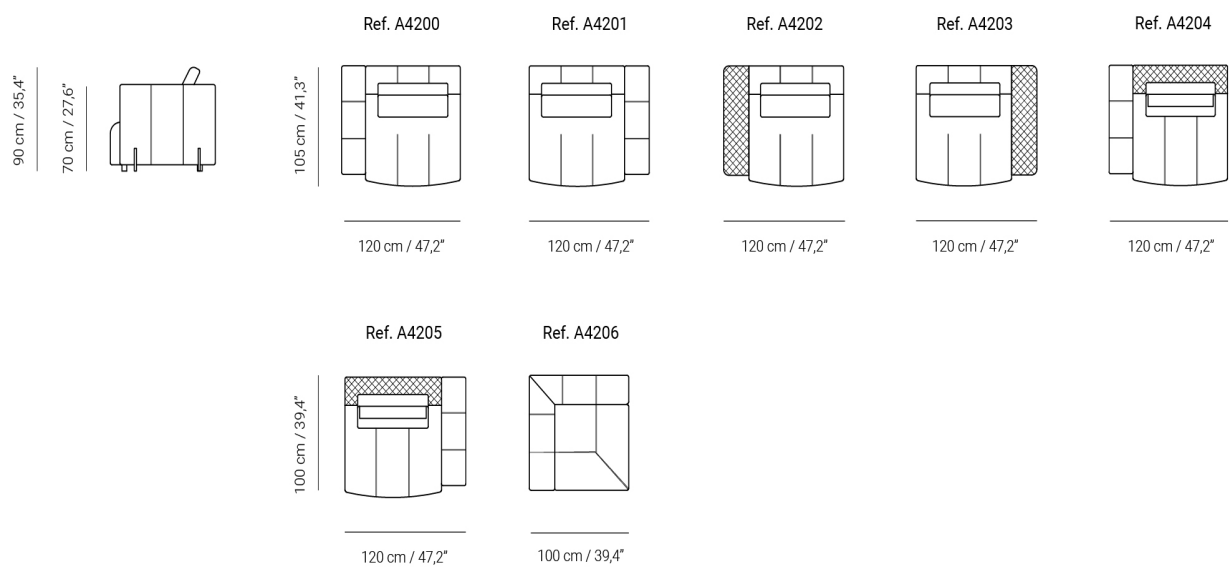

The Spanish designer Enrique Martí has drawn inspiration from American mid-century modern design by merging Art Nouveau and aerodynamics to create this distinctive collection of sectional sofas.

Evocative of the first grand luxury hotels and casinos, opulent automobiles and extravagant interior design when furniture and decoration were valued as elements of distinction and class. Bellagio was born to pay homage to those marvellous golden years with an added contemporary touch.
